Two killed on weekend

Minden O.P.P. report a very busy weekend with more than 20 accidents reported at press time on Monday. Two of these were fatal.

On Saturday, August 3, at the junction of Highway 35 and the Kinmount Road, a 1969 Plymouth wagon, operated by Suzanne Morin, 19, of Willowdale was in collision with a 1959 Meteor driven by Shelley Holliday, 17, of Toronto. A passenger in the Holliday vehicle, Carolyn Bernard, 18, of Islington, was removed to Ross Memorial Hospital, Lindsay, where she died later in the evening due to head injuries. Shelley Holliday also suffered head injuries, while Suzanne Morin was treated for minor lacerations and released. Constable B.J. Connelly was the investigating officer.

On Sunday, August 4, at approximately 10:30 p.m. on Highway 35, a mile and a half west of the Hawk Lake Road, Richard Laverne Turner, 22, of Notre Dame du Lac lost control of his vehicle while attempting to pass another car. He travelled into the ditch, struck a rock, and went over the embankment into Saskatchewan Lake where his body was found pinned under the vehicle in four feet of water. Constable T.R. Brown of the Minden Detachment was the investigating officer.

Canadian Blues and Jazz Festival planned

Jodie Drake is that rare attraction in show business, an accomplished singer who can truly entertain. Or, is she in fact a born entertainer, who can really sing? According to her ever increasing following of admirers, either is accurate in describing this tall talented Michigan songstress, who now makes her home in Toronto, Canada.

Miss Drake is one of the very special guests who will be appearing at the Canadian Blues and Jazz Festival to be held at the Community Centre in Minden this Friday night, August 9.

The happiness boys of mainstream jazz will be appearing at the Canadian Blues and Jazz Festival at the Community Centre in Minden on August 9th. They are the trio made up of tenor saxophonist Illinois Jacquet, organist Milt Buckner and drummer Jo Jones.

All three musicians have an internationally renowned recognition: Illinois with Lionel Hampton and Count Basie; Milt with McKinney's Cotton Pickers, Lionel

Jodie Drake

Hampton and for the past few years a solid member of the Illinois Jacquet trio. Jo Jones' recording credits are among the most extensive and impressive in jazz. Jo became famous as the drummer in Count Basie's "All American Rhythm Section", one of the most swinging rhythm sections of all time!

Each of the trio have appeared with Jazz at the Philharmonic, the Newport Jazz Festival, the Monterey Jazz Festival and many outstanding engagements in Europe, Canada and the United States.

Trumpeter Russell Jacquet is the special guest of the Festival. Russell has played with the late Lester Young, Coleman Hawkins and Jimmie Lunceford.

Miss Jodie Drake is the very special guest of the evening. Jodie is an entertainer of star magnitude. Her style is uniquely her own and her repertoire ranges from haunting ballads to "gut" blues. It is a style which has brought stunned audiences leaping to their feet in thunderous applause from New Orleans to Toronto.

All of the Festival performers are incredible giants of jazz and blues. The Rotary Club of Minden is proud to be sponsoring this tremendous Blues and Jazz Festival. Proceeds from the Festival are in aid of the Community Service Projects of the Minden Rotary Club.

Tickets will be available at the Community Centre on August 9, 1974.

Carnival a success

The Minden Rotary Carnival is now history and the two-day event held last week was a great success.

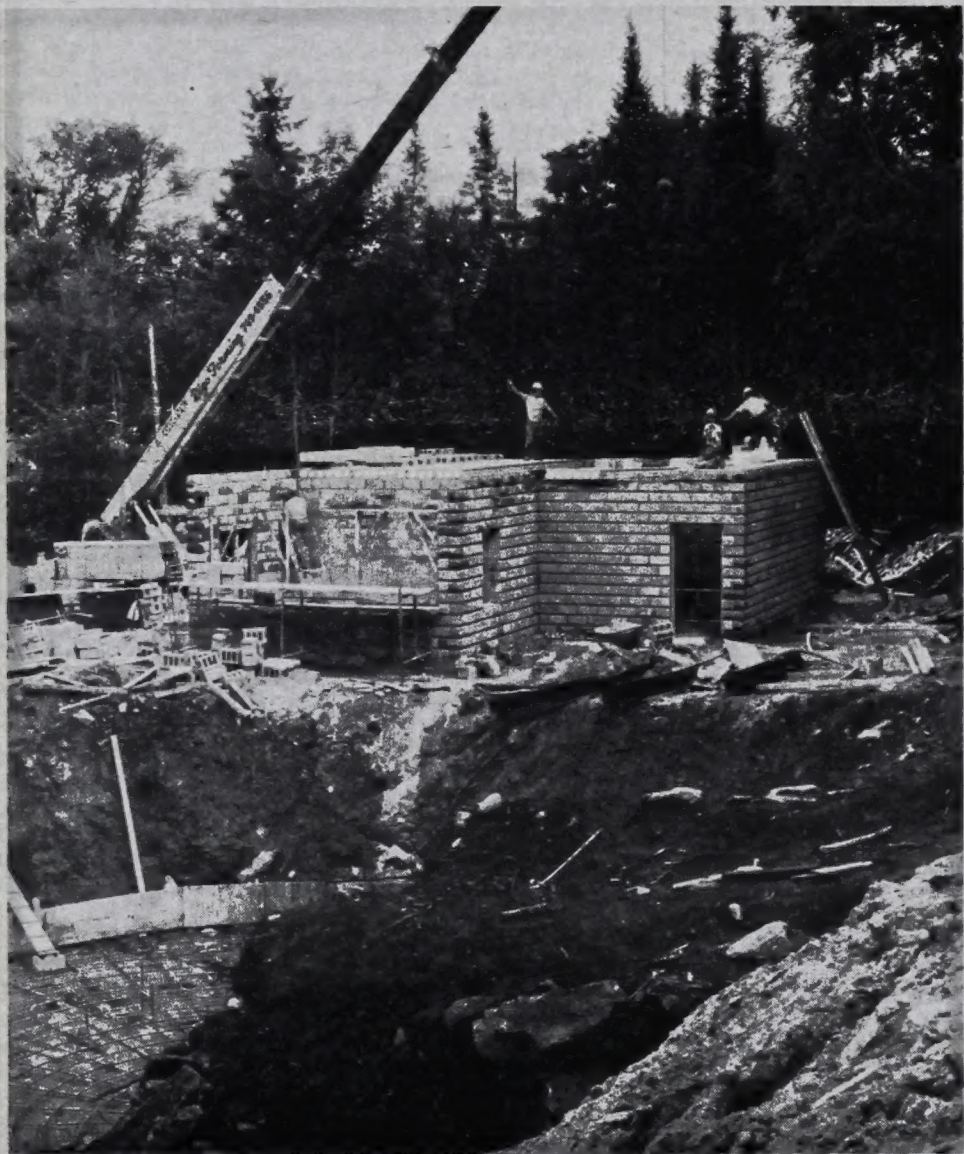

A crowd estimated at 4,000 was in attendance the first night for the parade and other activities while 3,000 showed up on the second night for the main attraction which was the Carling Aerobatic team which performed at 6:30 p.m. Following this big event the crowd headed for the fairgrounds and arena for the rest of the evening of fun and games for everyone.

The parade prize winners were as follows: Best overall entre, Campbells Florists; Best Decorated Car, Stedmans of Minden; Best Group, Hyland Crest Senior Citizens Home; Best dressed man, Chief Kitpou, entry by Camp Kandalore; Best dressed woman, Nora Hogg, Nora's Beauty Salon; Best on Wheels, Lawrence Pritchard.

The Carnival committee would like to take this opportunity to thank the Carling Aerobatic team for coming and putting on such a great show and to the MacDonald Export people for sending their sound truck which appeared in the parade playing music and other events during the afternoon and evening.

2500 people crowded their way into the Minden Community Centre last Friday night to see Canada's own Stompin' Tom Connors. It was the largest crowd in the arena's history and it all goes to prove just what a big attraction he really is. There's no bigger drawing entertainer in the business today. He didn't disappoint his large audience. It was a show more concerned with the past than with something new. And that was the reason behind its success. On Sunday night at the Forum at Ontario Place in Toronto he drew a record 10,000 people. The stomping, hooting and yelling from the large crowd started five minutes before Stompin Tom appeared on the stage and didn't stop all through the singer's long-hour performance.

Festacolor 74 events organized

Festacolor 74 in Haliburton, scheduled for Saturday, September 28, without a doubt should prove to be the top attraction of the 1974 season.

The big event which is being sponsored by the Rotary Club of Haliburton will feature practically a full day of entertainment and fun.

The co-chairmen David Bishop and Rick Poole called their chairmen of each event together for a dinner meeting at Sir Sam's Inn on Wednesday July 31. Twelve members were on hand and each of them was given his duties which he is to carry out for this big day.

Some of the attractions which were discussed were a giant bar-b-que, a horse drawing contest under the lights at the Haliburton ball park with top prize money, a band tatoon featuring several bands from all parts of Ontario, a show and dance in the evening plus a beer garden in the arena. At the present time the committee is lining up a top-rated Canadian band for the evening show and dance.

These and many more outstanding events will be on the entertainment menu.

On this same day The Upper Canada Railway Society will be running a rail excursion into Haliburton with approximately 600 people aboard and we are hoping that they will be here for five hours. Our visitors on the train will be joining with us in all the activities of the day.

Between now and September 28 we will be keeping you up to date on the many attractions that are coming up.

Dominion Hotel forces sudden-death playoff

Dominion Hotel Shufflers won their final two games of the season this week and in doing so, forced a sudden-death play-off game with West Guilford. Both teams finished the regular season in first place with identical 16-3-1 records. The play-off game will take place on Thursday evening in Haliburton at 7:30 p.m.

On Monday evening in Minden, Dominion downed Gull River Buildall 8-3. Jack Snell picked up his twelfth win of the season for Dominion, giving up three runs on eleven hits, four walks and struck out four. Jack also helped his own cause by lining a two-run homer over the right field fence, his seventh homer of the year.

Neil Burk hit his seventh homer of the season in a losing cause for Gull River.

On Wednesday in Minden, the Shufflers made it a clean sweep of their four-game series with Vasey's Midgets, this time by the more respectable score of 9-2.

Gene Newell hit his second homer of the year for Dominion. Royce Miller chalked up his fourth win without a loss, allowing just two runs on twelve hits.

West Guilford clenched a share of first place with Dominion Hotel on Sunday in West Guilford when they thrashed Vasey's Midgets 17-2.

Craig Stamp the Redmen's 21 hit onslaught with a five for five performance at the plate, including his league leading twelfth homer. He also scored three times and knocked in seven more runs. Larry Sawyer's bat has come alive in the past couple of games as he increased his batting average 44 points in the past two games. Larry had five hits in six trips while Floyd Henry was four for six.

Craig picked up his eleventh win of the season for Redmen while Tim Bain suffered his fourth setback.

On Tuesday evening in Haliburton, the Huskies edged Vasey's 15-11 to eliminate the Midgets from any chance of a play-off spot.

Jim Burk led the Huskie attack with his first homer of the season, a three-run blast in the fourth.

The Huskies appeared to be on the way to a rout when they had a 15-1 lead at the end of four. However, the Midgets settled down and started playing ball in the fifth. They scored six runs in the inning, added another in the sixth and three more in the seventh. Warren Donaldson picked up his first home run of the year in the fifth, for Vasey's.

Havan Cook got the win for Huskies while Tim Bain took his fifth loss.

Dominion ties Harcourt in tourney

Dominion Hotel Shufflers and Port Credit played to a 2-2 rain-called tie in the Annual Harcourt Senior Softball tournament in Harcourt on Saturday.

Port Credit jumped into a 2-0 lead in the fourth off starting Shufflers pitcher Syd Cooper, but Dominion got this back in the top of the seventh to force extra innings. However, the umpires called the game in the top of the eleventh because of torrential rain.

Jack Snell took over for Syd in the fourth and pitched scoreless ball the rest of the game for Dominion. Eric Moore of Dominion was the most valuable player of the game.

The Carlings Breweries will award each team $75 and each player on the two teams individual trophies.

Dominion reached the finals by downing Bancroft IGA Friday evening 15-5 and then ousted pre-tournament favorite, Bancroft Wades, 8-1 Saturday afternoon.

Havan Cook was the hero of both wins for Dominion, clouting two three-run homers in the first game and then adding another three-run blast in the second contest when brought in to pinch-hit for Larry Kent.

This tournament came within an eyelash of being an all-Minden final, as Gull River Buildall lost a heartbreaker 2-1 to Port Credit.

The game was a fiveinning affair due to lateness. Gull River scored what they felt was the winning run in the top of the fifth inning to go up 1-0. However, Port Credit won the game in the bottom of the inning on a hit batsman, (Questionable) and two errors. The most costly of which was a two out fly ball dropped in left field by Builders Ken Lewis.

This was the finishing game of the tournament until the final, as Port Credit scored two runs on no hits, a hit batter and two Builder errors. Gull River scored one run on one hit and two Port Credit errors.

Gull River got to the semi-final when they blasted Bancroft Gables, 10-6. Craig Stamp not only picked up the win for Builders but also clouted two three-run homers. Neil Burk also hit a three-run homer for Gull River.

Gull River Buildall beaten by the rain

On Sunday evening the Gull River Buildall had a 7-3 lead at the end of four innings on the West Guilford Redmen, when the skies opened up and a downpour waded out the game. This was the first game of the best of seven semi-final play-offs.

The unfortunate part of it all was the two home runs hit by Wayne Johnson and the one towering blast by Redmen's Floyd Henry are wiped out as well as the game.

The two teams will go at it again on Thursday evening in West Guilford at 6 p.m.

The All-Star Ballots are coming in slowly to date, let us have everybody participate in picking this team. This is your chance fans to have your team picked. In the past either the coaches or this sports writer has picked the team and their have been a lot of complaints. So let us get a paper, the Minden Progress or the Haliburton Echo, clip out the ballot and send it to either paper or just bring it to one of the offices and drop it in the ballot box, but do it.

There are some people confused by the three lines at the bottom of the ballot. This "Write in" is for players not listed on the ballot. Or, if you wish write in your picks as to the three most valuable players in the league and at what position.

Minden Ladies blast Haliburton by 53-10

On July 16 the Minden Ladies opened their season at home with a fantastic 53-10 lambasting of their arch rival Haliburton.

The Minden offense was led by Faye Mansfield, Nelda Cully, Janet Fitchett and Norma Burk all off whom hit home runs.

Linda Berry picked up the win for Minden.

MINDEN 26 GOODERHAM 6

On July 23 here in Minden the ladies made it three wins without a loss when they downed visiting Gooderham 26-6.

Linda Berry and Janet Fitchett each had home runs for the winners and Linda chalked up her third straight victory.

GOODERHAM 25 MINDEN 24

On July 24 in Gooderham the Minden Ladies suffered their first loss of the season, 25-24 to Gooderham.

MINDEN 11 CARNARVON 1

ON July 30 here in Minden the Ladies routed Carnarvon 11-1. Linda Berry was again the winning pitcher bringing her seasons record to 5-1. The win enabled Minden to take over sole possession of first place in the league, two points ahead of Carnarvon.

New service is started

The advertisement appearing in to-day's County Echo headed "The Buckhorn Road is Paved" was conceived and arranged by a new business in our town - "Haliburton Public Relations and Advertising."

Its owner Mr. Don Hilliard, a Haliburton businessman, has had an extensive background in the field, including Advertising Manager of a large Canadian Book Publisher. He has radio and television experience, recently producing a community T.V. program called "The Hilliard Report" for Wired City Cable Co. of Scarborough.

Scarborough, a city of 350,000 people, watched air shows he produced and attended home and garden shows he arranged.

Locally Mr. Hilliard had entertained hundreds of children (now adults) at one of Haliburton's older lodges when he holidayed from 1946 - 1966. Ask them about "Hickie the Clown" and his "Tin Can Parades!"

"I've watched Haliburton grow since 1946 and blossom into a wonderful, bustling community and I think Haliburton and its people need the services. "Haliburton Public Relations" can provide," said Hilliard.

We wish him Good-Luck!

West Guilford wins title

In a sudden-death game played to decide first place and the Senior League Championship, West Guilford edged Dominion Hotel 4-1 in Haliburton on Thursday evening. This was perhaps the finest game of the season in the Senior league.

Larry Sawyer gave West Guilford a 1-0 lead in the third inning when he singled to right, advanced to second on error by the second basemen for Shufflers and scored on George Nichols single to right. West Guilford upped the score to 2-0 in the fifth when Ernie Bain singled stole second and scored on Sawyers single to center.

Dominion cut the margin in half in the sixth when

Rosenberg holds lead in open golf

After five complete rounds of the Minden Billiard Open Golf tournament, Ken Rosenberg holds a commanding 26 stroke lead, with a total of 384. The Open is a 10-round tournament with $120 in prize money at stake.

Doug Heath still holds down second over third place Cliff Burke 410 to 422.

Other five-round scores are Bill Payne 437, Dave Joyce 452, John Hobbs 468, Tom Boice 484 and Alf Vanderwal 495.

There are four other golfers who have not yet completed five rounds, Leigh Ball, Ross Pawson, Hugh Nichols and J.O. Jackson. Come on fellows, how about catching up to the pack.

... where life is living - for everyone

News Letter

There has been so many events and attractions for people to attend here in Haliburton County this summer that it is practically impossible to take them all in. There seems to be something doing here every day and night.

There is nothing like moving to larger quarters to hold a meeting. The Rotary Club of Minden on Monday night July 29 moved their meeting from the auditorium of the Minden Community Centre out onto the ice surface of the arena.

With the summer weather more bicycles are on the road, says the Ontario Safety League. Traffic accidents take the lives of many bicycle riders every year and injure thousands of others in Canada. Many of these accidents involve a violation by the bike rider, but that doesn't excuse the driver. Be on the lookout for bicycle riders - especially at dusk and give them a break.

The big fish in Haliburton County seem to be coming out of Drag Lake. There have been some dandies caught there in recent weeks, and boy are they ever big ones.

Illinois Jacquet, who brings his famous trio from around the world tours with the Newport Jazz Festival, and from Carnegie Hall to the "Canadian Jazz and Blues Festival" Minden, Ontario on August 9, 1974, is undoubtedly the most recorded saxophonist in show business, having recorded for Decca Records, Alladin, Apollo Records, Disc and Verv of Jazz at the Philharmonia, R.C.A. Victor Records, Cadet, Prestige, Roulette and Black and Blue of France.

His recording career dates back to 1940 when Illinois met up with a vibreharpist names Lionel Hampton in Los Angeles. Lionel had just formed his own combination and was looking for a soloist to use on his recording dates. Twenty five minutes after Hampton heard Jacquet's jam session, he had him in a recording studio making his first disc.

The summer play to be presented at the Haliburton Highlands Secondary School this Monday night, August 12th will be "The Prisoner of Second Avenue". Thought by many to be Neil Simon's best play. The funny story of life becoming just too much for a middle aged New York businessman, Jack Northmore and Joan Panton play the two leading roles.

When Minden came to Gooderham on Wednesday, July 24, it was the closest ball game that Gooderham ever played with any team. Gooderham was behind and when they got up for their last bat they beat Minden 25-24. The winning pitcher was Joan Riel and the losing pitcher was Linda Barry.

You know that it is all important that we keep Haliburton County clean. Let us all make it a point to put our litter in the litter containers strung out around the county.

The street lights on Park Street and in another section of Haliburton were off once again recently. There is a problem in this section and we would sure like to see it remedied.

The Haliburton Legion Pipe Band is shown under the floodlights at the Haliburton Ball Park preparing to step off on one of the many parades which they have participated in this summer. Haliburton is mighty proud of its musical organization and you'll be seeing a lot more of them at various events in the future. Organized just a short time ago the band has come a long way and is in great demand locally as well as receiving invitations from all over Ontario.

Centennial summer is busy for chamber

The summer of our Centennial year is more than half over and it has been a busy one any way you may look at it. At the Information Booth Marion Arntfield and Judy Boice have been very busy guiding our visitors in many ways. As in past years the question asked most frequently is "where are the washrooms?" It is a question that should be able to be answered in the affirmative and I think it would be one of the most worthwhile projects for any local group or Council, to build adequate facilities at the Welcome Centre.

The Chamber is embark-

Convenor resigns

Mrs Jane Fairfield, after forty years acting as Convenor for Historical Research for the Minden Women's Institute and writing annual papers on the County's various original features and early settlements has on her 95th year, resigned from active duties as such.

Mrs. Wallace Walker of pioneer heritage takes her position. We expect some new news and good descriptions as Mrs Walker also inherits keen observations and experiences.

Fatalities up

The Minden Detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police informed the Echo this week that the fatality and drowning rate for Haliburton County is up considerably so far this year.

From the period of January to the present time there have been 11 car fatalities, four drownings, and two deaths by other causes.

ing on their 1975 Haliburton Highlands Lure Book and we hope to have the best book ever published. It will be the only booklet published by the Chamber and it will be distributed widely throughout the U.S.A. and Canada. It will also be sent to all those who inquire about any goods, services and accommodations available in the Highlands.

There will be many pages in color, depicting some of the beauty spots in the County, and advertising space will be available to members on a first come basis. Interest in the book has been very high, especially with it being the only one printed.

Time is important as we have a deadline early in the Fall. As quickly as I can I will be calling to solicit your ad.

Let us all get behind this Chamber project and help make good things happen in the Haliburton Highlands.

SOME MORE FACTS ABOUT HALIBURTON COUNTY

[From the back of Registry Office Letterhead in the 1940's]

"Haliburton County is only 110 miles (three-hour drive) north-east of Toronto, and is reached by a splendid new Provincial Highway passing through Lindsay and on through Cobocok, Minden, Haliburton, Dorset and other points, or reaching the southern and eastern section of the county through Fenelon Falls and Kinmount on to Irondale, Gooderham, Tory Hill, Wilberforce, Highland Grove, etc. These roads pass many beautiful lakes.

Modern stores, Inns, Hotels, Service Stations and Villages dot the County at frequent intervals.

Come to this "New Playground of America". Motor along among its many lakes of pure sparkling water, bathe in them and feel their invigorating freshness impart the flush of health; fish in them for Trout, Bass, etc., and taste the delicious flavor of fish fresh hooked from "Highland Lakes", or roam in the cool, secluded, quiet places among the hardwoods, evergreens and silver birches for which Haliburton County is noted.

Choose your lake shore property NOW in "Beautiful Haliburton".

Lake lots, with beaches of golden sand, at very reasonable prices may be obtained from property owners in all parts of the Highlands.

Promotion needed

In speaking with many local people, they all seem to be in agreement that more money should be spent on advertising winter business and less on summer promotion. It seems to us that the summer months will take care of themselves, but then we are back to the old story - what about the other ten months? We are only fooling ourselves if we think that we can continue to survive on six to eight weeks of summer trade.

In our opinion we believe that with a bit more effort we can really get into the winter end of business and bring the people back to the Highlands of Haliburton all year round in hopes of strengthening our economy. A start has been made and some of the results are starting to show.

Some of the local merchants tell us that their winter business is picking up and that they would like to see it level off to the point where they would have a steady business for twelve months of the year.

Some of the results we are getting can be traced back to the efforts of the Haliburton County Snowmobile Association, Sir Sam's Inn ski tow and the Haliburton Forest and Wild Life Reserve Ltd.

The snowmobile association has been trying to drill home the fact to all of us that in order to get winter business a machine must be purchased in an effort to groom the snowmobile trails here in the county. That machine was purchased last year and we are now reaping the results of this investment.

Haliburton Forest and Wild Life Reserve has done a great job with its snowmobile trails and hundreds are being attracted to this area as a result. And where could you find better skiing than at Sir Sam's Inn at Eagle Lake.

It all adds up to the fact that we are starting to get the facilities and we have the potential. All we need now is a little more money spent on promotion. We would certainly invite your opinion on this matter.

Minden Community Centre activities outstanding

The village of Minden is to be congratulated on the many outstanding activities it is having at the Minden Community Centre. With the cement floor on the ice surface it enables them to put some big crowds in the arena.

This summer for instance the community centre has been and will be the scene of some star studded entertainment. Those in charge of booking the entertainment are also to be congratulated because they are not bringing in any second-rate entertainers, but they are giving the people the kind of entertainment that is tops in the entertainment business.

To prove this point let us look at some of the shows that are being staged there. Most Saturday nights the best rock bands in Canada perform for the dances. One of the top rock singers in the United States, Cubby Checkers has been on the entertainment bill. Last Friday night the one and only Stompin Tom Connors was at the centre, and this Friday night it is the Canadian Blues and Jazz Festival featuring the Illinois Jacquet Trio with special guest star Miss Jodie Drake.

This all goes to prove that the people of Haliburton County and our summer visitors are having the opportunity to see and hear the top entertainers in Canada and the United States.

Editorial notes

Last week the Rotary Club of Haliburton voted unanimously to update the excellent little book "Haliburton Village 1864-1964" at a cost of up to $3,000.00. This booklet contains a wealth of information and is sure worth reading. Up to this time a total number of 3,000 copies have been printed and the revised edition will also be 3,000 copies.

It has been brought to our attention that some of the private docks owned by cottagers on the various local lakes are in some cases out in the water from anywhere from 100 to 200 feet. If these docks are not well-marked or lit up at night some person will be running into them with a boat and serious injury could be the result.

At a recent meeting of the Rotary Club of Haliburton, Rotarian Curry Bishop presented a very interesting and informative talk and film on the subject of "Family Property Law". It seems many of these logical and necessary reforms are long overdue.

The Red Cross swimming lessons for the month of August are now underway at the Rotary Beach in Haliburton with good attendance in all classes.

Pic of the past

car. Our thanks to Mrs. Ruby Henderson of Kinmount for giving us this photo.

A LONG, LONG TIME

BILL SMILEY

This column is going to be a little tough to write. No, there hasn't been a death in the family. Not quite.

But I wasn't too sure I wasn't going to bleed to death (through the eyes) when I tottered out of bed at seven this morning just two hours after tottering into bed.

It was all that reading. My brother-in-law, Jack Buell, brought along on a visit some old high school football pictures, and we spent most of the night, barely stopping for food and drink deciphering the names under the photos.

There we were, in the late 1930's, looking so young and sweet and innocent it would make your eyes water. One picture was headed: Undefeated Champions of Lanark County.

That was a great year, I reckon. Come on, now. How many of you have ever been on a team of Undefeated Champions of anything?

We talked and laughed a lot as we identified long-forgotten faces and our wives muttered away contemptuously in the background. They thought we were behaving like a couple of schoolboys. We were.

Right in the middle of the front row, holding the ball, was Les Douglas, quarter back and team captain. He wasn't a big guy, but he was solid bone, muscle and grit. He could always claw his way that extra five inches for a touchdown, through six hundred pounds of enemy flesh.

He was a great hockey player, too. Make it to professional. But he was born twenty years too soon. There were just too many great hockey players in those days, and he didn't quite make the NHL, though he led the American Hockey League in scoring for several seasons. Today, he'd be knocking off about $60,000 a year.

Flanking him in the photo were Bob White and Tom Harper. Tom could run with the ball like a rabbit with six guys shooting at him.

Bob White was my best friend, through high school. He wasn't huge, either, but when we needed a few yards, there was no question of who would get the ball. Bob would take a plunge at anything the size of a doughnut hole, and always come up with the necessary yards.

We all hated school, except for the sports, but Bob White was bright. Today, he'd be going to college and becoming an engineer, or something equally useless. But in those days, there was no way. No students' loans, no grants, and dang few affluent parents. If you got a job in a factory, you were lucky.

Last time I saw Bob was in London, England, during the war. It was in the lobby of the famous, or infamous, Strand Palace. He was checking out, I was checking in. Hello and goodbye. He had completed one tour of operations on bombers and was about to begin his second.

On which he was killed.

Beside Bob in the picture was Johnny Hogg. A nice guy, who was forced by his parents to maintain a much higher standard of intellectual and cultural life than the rest of us poolroom bums. He played the violin. He passed his subjects. He was a clean-living, good-looking lad, just the type you'd want for yourself, though he had a distressing habit of dropping crucial punts.

As I heard it later, they found Johnny lying in a rubber dinghy in the Mediterranean. Dead. He'd been shot down, wounded, parachuted, got into the dinghy, and died.

Then there was Les Morris, a boy with a terrible home life, a terrible birthmark, and a personality to go with both. But he was also a terrible, terrifying tackler, who could hit a fancy-dancy halfback so hard that the guy didn't know he'd been amputated at the knees until he tried to stand up.

And Norm Davis. He had the speed of a gazelle, and the grace of a gnu. He didn't come back from the war either.

There were quite a few more, but Old Jack, my brother-in-law and myself, didn't belabour the tragic theme. We laughed until we were purple in the face at all the things we had got away with, not all the things that had got away with so many of us.

It was also nice to see our coaches, Earl Fleming, teacher, such a handsome young man I can't believe we called him "Old Flem." J. C. Cosgrove, 248 pounds of science teacher who could wipe two recalcitrant students off their stools with one hand as easily as I could wipe the dust off the window-sill, if such a silly thing ever occurred to me.

As you can see, this has been a hard column to write. And probably a mighty difficult one to read.

Wedding of Helen McKee and Ronald Stackhouse

On Thursday, June 6, Dr. Helen Patricia Wynne McKee daughter of Dr and Mrs D.M. McKee of Toronto and Ronald Lorne Stackhouse, son of Mrs Roy Stackhouse, of West Guilford were united in marriage at St. George's United Church in Toronto.

Helen and Ron were escorted out of the church by Dr. Tom McKean, playing the bagpipes.

Over 200 guests attended, with some coming from as far as 1500 miles away.

Susan Whiteside was matron of honour and Mickey Redmond was best man.

Also included in the wedding party were Anne McLachlan, Linda LeSavage, Dr. Chris Mills, Brian Sisson, Murray Hague, Tony Featherstone and Bob Henderson.

The reception was held at the Granite Club on Bayview Avenue, Toronto. Everyone enjoyed a lovely dinner and dance.

Helen and Ron are at present staying at their summer residence in Haliburton.

Helen is associating with Dr. John Postlethwaite and Ron is Head Manager of Coed Helen Stables.

The newlyweds plan to reside in Pittsburg during the winter months.

Wedding of Eunice Hague and Dale Tracey

St. Paul's Anglican Church, Lindsay, was decorated with yellow daisies and white gladioli on June 22, 1974, for the 2:30 p.m. wedding of Eunice Etta Hague of Lindsay, daughter of Mr and Mrs Noble Hague of RR 1, Minden and Dale Joseph Tracey, son of Mr and Mrs Gerald Tracey of RR 6, Lindsay. Rev. Lowin officiated at the ceremony. The soloist, Catherine Mitchell of Lindsay, sang "Ave Maria" and "Our Father", accompanied by Donald Lozon, also of Lindsay.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of antique satin and peau de soie, edged with lace trim, daisies and pink ribbon. Her headdress of daisies, held a shoulder length veil of nylon tulle and she carried a white Bible, with a bouquet of red sweetheart roses and pink carnations.

The maid-of-honor was Miss Susan Shaw of RR 1, Minden. The bridesmaids were Mrs Marjorie Brown of Lochlin and Mrs. Enid Hughes of Lindsay, sisters of the bride. They all wore

A-line gowns of blue flowered print. The maid-of-honor carried a bouquet of blue iris and white daisies and the bridesmaids' bouquets were of pink and blue carnations. Their head-dresses were three blue roses.

The best man was Tim Tracey of Lindsay. The ushers were Paul Tracey of Lindsay and John Francis of Gelert.

For the reception at the Bonfire, Lindsay, the bride's mother received, wearing a navy and white A-line dress, white accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. The bridegroom's mother assisted, wearing a coral dress, coral flowers in her hair and a corsage of yellow roses.

For a honeymoon to the east coast, the bride wore a blue pant suit and white accessories.

The newlyweds reside in Lindsay.

Guests were present from West Guilford, Tory Hill, Haliburton, Pontiac, Mich., Minden, Lindsay, Gelert, Toronto, Hanover and Eldorado.

The Cameron Road

In this year of 1974 it would be of interest to take a look at the early Colonization Roads of Haliburton County in their Centennial year celebrations. With this in mind I have found through research on early Government books and documents the following brief history:-

THE CAMERON ROAD - This Road joined in general the villages of Minden, Norland, Coboconk and Rosedale and is somewhat the present location of Highway 35 through the area.

In the year of 1867 we find the following comments in the Report of the Commissioner of Crown Road for the year ending December 31st:- CAMERON ROAD - A short road from Balsam River in Fenelon to the Monck Road in Digby, about 18 miles; 12 or 14 of which have been roughly made. There has been expended on it $3,700. I answers no reasonable colonization purposes.

In the year 1872 the commens were as follows:- CAMERON ROAD - To extend the Cameron road to the Village of Minden and construct a bridge across Gull River below Moore's Lake $1,000 was appropriated. The road has been opened between the points named as a winter road. Total expenditure $600.00.

In the year 1873 the comments were as follows:- CAMERON ROAD - This road has been completed within 4 miles of the Village of Minden. 12 1/2 miles have been wrought over. A good portion of the line has been difficult to construct, being excessively stony and broken. The completion of this road to Minden will supply a very important link in the internal chain of communication with agricultural settlements in the northerly parts of the Counties of Victoria and Peterborough. It will enable the inhabitants to avail themselves of all the transport advantages of the Toronto and Nipissing Railway, as it already connects as far as completed, the settlements in the former county with the Coboconk Station on the above railway. The total expenditure on the road this year is $4,145.90.

In the year 1874 the commens were as follows:- CAMERON ROAD - On the contract work of this road an additional amount has been paid of $200.00. Some necessary improvements have been made on this road this season, reaching from a point a little north of the Village of Norland to the Village of Coboconk, a distance of about 6 miles. Expenditure on account $569.02.

In the year 1882 the comments were as follows:- CAMERON ROAD - This appropriation was spread over 6 miles, extending from the Rosedale Locks to the Village of Coboconk. A good deal of rock blasting was done, this element being the chief difficulty with this as with many other colonization roads. Expenditure $200.00.

Included in the comments of 1883 were these concerning the Cameron Bridge which is over Black Creek. CAMERON BRIDGE - Built over the Black Creek on the Cameron Road about 3/4 mile south of Moore's Falls. The bridge is 140 feet long - main piers 15 feet high from bed of creek. It is composed of three piers and two abutments with pine superstructure and hand rail. Expenditure $460.54.

YOU DON'T HAVE TO BE AN ARTIST TO HAVE AN ART CAREER

Musicians, actors and painters aren't the only ones involved in the art field. There are many areas peripheral to the visual and performing arts that offer varied and challenging positions.

Two of these begin with us.

Our two-year Fine Arts Administration program is excellent preparation for careers in business management for little theatre or art summer schools, stage management, set construction, museum display, and model making, among others.

If you are more interested in techniques or inclined to handicrafts, rather than management, our new Art Conservation Techniques program will enable you to work in the preservation and restoration of documents, maps, rare books, artifacts, antiques, and textiles, as well as works of art. A small amount of artistic skill is, of course, necessary for either career. But you don't have to be an artist.

The Mountain Folk

a serial by Eileen Caines

Meredith gave an exclamation of relief as the lights of the diner and gas station came in sight. She had driven miles now, without a sign of life, or even another car. The road climbed steadily, the hills on either side grew steeper. The air the last hundred miles seemed crisper, clean and fresh.

The letter from cousin Janice, had been like the answer to a prayer. "Come and visit me, on your vacation", she had written. "It is time you saw a little of the state of Tennessee." Meredith had felt grateful for the chance to get away. New faces and surroundings she felt, would help her get over the broken engagement with Todd.

So far, so good, ran her thoughts, as she stepped out of the little sports car, and walked towards the door of the diner. A cup of coffee, sandwich, and a tank full of gas. Surely there must be a motel, somewhere along the road. If worst came to worst she could sleep in the car. She was not a timid girl, and travelling alone did not bother her.

The bell above the door gave a merry jingle as she stepped inside. The diner was clean, bright and cheerful. Sitting on a stool at the counter she gave her order. It was taken by a smiling, friendly faced woman. The man behind the counter with the woman nodded cheerfully as she asked him to fill the gas tank, however he seemed in no hurry to do so. "You travelling alone Miss?" the woman asked, filling a cup with coffee, and handing it to Meredith. Before Meredith could answer, the woman went on. "Don't mind me asking, it's just that we don't see many customers passing through, this time of year."

The woman was so friendly and kind, Meredith found herself telling her all about the letter from Janice, and why she was here. The only other customer, a young man, sitting at the far end of the counter was listening also. Moving closer to Meredith he said. "Miss there are no motels, or accommodations of any kind around here." Indicating the man who had taken her order for gas, he went on, "Jake here had better give that little car of yours a good going over, before you go on."

The woman agreed saying, "The mountains of Tennessee are no place to have car trouble, alone at night."

Meredith, basking in the warm friendly atmosphere, these people seemed to radiate, agreed. As the men went out, she engaged again in sparkling conversation with the woman.

A half hour later the men came in, and told her the car was ready. She paid the man, and said an almost reluctant farewell.

As she reached the diner door, the younger man's voice came. "Miss-aw-Miss, and as we turned inquiringly, he came and stood near her. "Would you mind Miss?" "Yes", as he hesitated. "Well Miss, I live a piece up the road", he went on uncomfortably. "Would you take it bold of me, if I asked you for a lift, a mile or two?"

Meredith hesitated, she hated to refuse, these people were so kind, and yet she was alone. And the man was a stranger. Seeing her discomfort, and reading her thoughts, she was amazed to see his face redden. "I'm sorry Miss, it's alright. I shouldn't have asked," he said.

The other's, the man and woman came forward. "It's alright Miss, you do not even know our names", the woman said. "We are Jake and Alice Farnum, and that's Stan Reddick. If you'll be willing to take our word for it, Stan's a good man. You'll be perfectly safe with him."

Meredith looked from one earnest face to the other. Instinctively she felt she could trust them. "Of course", she said, making up her mind at once. "My name is Meredith Allen."

In the dim light of the interior of the car, Meredith studied the young man, as she drove. Young, about twenty five she judged. Deeply tanned, eyes as blue as the mountain sky. Tall, well built, he gave an impression of great strength.

He kept up a steady flow of conversation, his voice deep, yet low pitched. As she answered his many questions he seemed deeply interested, and yet preoccupied. Intent on something within himself, she thought.

The car climbed steadily, she had an impression of great heights. On either side, thickly wooded hills and rocks. "Scenery must be magnificent here in daylight," she spoke the thought aloud. "Yes Miss", came the brief answer, with a keen glance.

Suddenly he leaned forward, "Just ahead Miss Allen, here's where I leave you", he said.

Meredith brought the car to a stop. "But there is no light, no sign of a house". She turned and found him smiling, amusement in his eyes. "No ma'am", he said, but half a mile up yonder, is where I stable my horse". At her questioning look he settled himself against the car cushions, and spoke again.

"Five miles through these mountains Miss, over a rough and rocky trail, live the mountain people. We are a proud lot, and don't have much in common, or to do, with the "outside" world. That's my destination, I'm one of them."

Meredith's curiosity held her spellbound. She forgot the dark, and that this was a strange young man. And that she was alone with him. "Please", she said, "please go on".

He switched the overhead light on, looked at her long and earnestly. "Miss Allen", he said, his voice full of emotion, "If I thought you were really interested, or would help, and not think me crazy" -. "Please", she said again, "What is it, what is bothering you?"

He answered with a question of his own. "Your vacation, how long is it, and from what?" "Why - why, it's as long as I want", she stammered, "and I was secretary, in a lawyer's office."

Drawing a long breath, he said. "Miss, you seem to be at loose ends right now?" She nodded at his questioning look, wonder in her mind, and a growing excitement.

"My people, that is the hill people," he said, "are a hard working lot. But they are ignorant, uneducated. Simple country folk, content to remain that way. We want intrusion on our way of life. Most of us look on strangers with alarm and suspicion."

He looked at her, and seeing her surprised, and interested expression went on. "There are folks in these hills, who have never been beyond them. Nothing would induce them to go."

He was silent. His thoughts she knew far ahead of his story. "Please", she ventured at last, "What are you trying to tell me? You said something about help"

With a start he turned back to her. "Yes", he said, "but it would not do". He seemed to look through her, as if seeing for the first time, her smart expensive clothes. Her carefully done hair, lovely complexion, long, painted finger nails.

Meredith, looking at his face, read his thoughts, as clearly as if he had spoken aloud. A spark of anger burned within her. Her voice was sharp, "What won't do, Mr Reddick. What is it you think I'm too soft to do?"

The young man grinned, but held her gaze steadily. "All right Miss Allen," he said, "since you're so good at reading thoughts, would you consider spending your vacation among ignorant mountain people. Learning our ways, getting to know us, and especially the children?" As he said this last his voice was emotion filled, soft, yet bitter.

Meredith gasped, her thoughts whirling, "But why, what on earth--," and then getting angry, "What is it man, say what you really mean."

What I mean Miss, is our children need someone, someone who can teach them to read and write, at least." His voice was hard, his eyes stony.

"But I'm not a school teacher, I'm not qualified to teach!" Astonishment made her voice high. "I didn't say we needed a qualified school teacher," he said, "you could teach them the alphabet and how to add two and two, which is more than they know now."

Before Meredith could collect her thoughts, he suddenly launched into a description of people and way of life, that was like a story book.

Life and ways Meredith had never dreamed existed. The mountain folk, he told her held to their own ways. Simple, yet beautiful existence he described, alien to the "outside" world. A life most, familiar with modern day living, would consider hard and unrewarding.

He told her of a world where electricity, and all it meant, did not exist. Where a few dollars a year took care of their needs. For the most part they were self-sufficient. The men sold a bit of timber, the women gathered herbs, relying on him to make contact with the "outside" for the sale.

Only a very few left the mountains, and then only to achieve enough education to benefit "their people". Like "Dr. Matt", who studied medicine and then returned, to "Dr" his folk.

When Meredith asked about him, Stan Reddick, he said simply that he had completed public school. His time was now taken up by looking after the folk, the best he could.

The Farnum's at the restaurant, were of mountain stock. The motorists like herself, stopping for lunch and coffee made their livelihood. They provided the only real link, with the outside world the mountain folk had. He explained the back of the diner was a "store", which supplied the commodities the folk could not grow for themselves. Himself, the Farnum's, and Dr Matt, constituted the main stay of the people.

When he finished speaking they sat silent, for a time. Meredith finally roused herself, and broke the silence by asking. "And you think I could help, by teaching the children a little, during my vacation?"

He nodded confirmation of this, and as she was learning was characteristic of him, asked a question of his own. "Miss Allen, have you ever heard the word 'fey'?" Meredith said she thought it meant some one who had a strong development of "sixth" sense.

He nodded again, saying, "The mountain folk speak of someone like that as being 'fey'. He went on to explain that when he had first saw, and talked to her in the diner, he had a strong feeling about her.

"I believe," he said, "you are the one I have searched for." "I think you would love our mountains, our people, and perhaps, when your vacation is over, you will choose to remain with us."

Overriding her comment that she, as an outsider, might be resented, he simply said if he took her, the folk would accept her.

"Will you," he said, "come back to the diner with me, stay overnight with the Farnum's, and think on it till tomorrow?"

To her own astonishment, Meredith found herself agreeing. Mrs Farnum did not seem very surprised to see her return. She told Meredith, she also had a "feeling" about her.

That night, as Meredith rested, and tried to sleep, the thought uppermost in her mind was Stan's words. "I could not let you go". "I want you to see my mountains, my people, most of all I want to see more of you, for myself."

Suddenly she realized, that not since stopping at the diner, had she once thought of Todd, and the broken engagement. In a few hours her past life seemed unreal. Only the "now", was important to her. Her last thought, before going to sleep was, "Why I'm going with him", and somehow the thought brought her a sense of joy and peace.

The ride into the mountains next morning, was an experience Meredith was to remember all her life. After telling the Farnum's and Stan of her decision, she arranged to leave her car at the diner.

Stan went to the farm, and returned with his horse and borrowed "democrat." A vehicle Meredith had never seen before, but found the straw filled, canvas covered "seats" quite comfortable.

The trail, after passing the small farm grew steeper, and narrower. In places barely wide enough to carry the democrat, and from which sheer cliffs fell, hundreds of feet below. The breath taking beauty of the mountains reaching to touch to the deep blue of the sky.

Surrounded on every side by immense evergreen clad hills, Meredith was caught and held in their awe striking beauty. She found herself drawing deep breathes of clean, fresh, exhilarating air.

Stan explained to her he had built a small school house two years before, in anticipation of getting someone who would teach the children. He had also acquired a few text books, pencils, chalk boards, etc. He had built a small log cabin, for the "teacher", separate, but near the dwelling he shared with his parents.

Listening to him, Meredith realized how important, and dear to his heart, was this matter of the children. How deep his desire they receive a little schooling.

As they went deeper into the mountains, they passed several homes. Some were log, and some rough planks, or boards. Children from these dwellings came and stared as they passed. She noticed all the children were bare foot; wore "home made" clothing. The clothing, though threadbare and patched, was clean.

The afternoon shadows were long when Stan and Meredith finally reached his parents home. Surprised and bewildered as his parents were, when Stan explained her presence, they formed an instant liking for Meredith, and she for them.

Most of the furniture in the home was hand-crafted, benches and tables made of pine. This Meredith was to find true of all the homes of the mountain folk. The bed she slept in that night was hand-made, the deep feather tick mattress, soft and comfortable.

The next morning, Stan took her to see the school house, and the little log cabin, that was to be her home. An exclamation of surprised delight escaped her, when he opened the door. The wooden floor, and hand made furniture were sanded and rubbed to a gleaming luster.

Colourful hooked rugs lay here and there, in front of the furniture. Bright, gay curtains hung on the windows. It was evident much care, and hard work had gone into the making of this cheerful cottage.

The next two weeks were spent "visiting and getting acquainted" with the people of the hills. She found they held Stan in high regard. As he had told her, they were willing to accept her on his "say so".

Sometimes you just can't win

The Parry Sound Office of the Ministry of Natural Resources presently maintains five garbage dumping areas in the most heavily developed sections of the South Channel of the Georgian Bay.

Since these sites are accessible by water only, special facilities are provided for the convenience of cottagers and other users to permit easy disposal of refuse. These facilities consist of a better than average sized docks connected by wide ramps running up to the actual dumping sites. As an added convenience, a heavy-duty rubber-tired wheelbarrow is provided at each site. In order to make these facilities as aesthetically pleasing as possible, docks and ramps are coated with paint of a colour which best blends with the surroundings.

But - would you believe it? So far this year the Ministry already has lost five of its wheelbarrows at five separate sites. Can you imagine any individual with so little foresight as to remove such an item of equipment which has been placed on a site for his own convenience and that of his neighbours?

Those responsible for these acts are asked to consider the inconvenience which their actions have caused to themselves and other users. These water accessible dump sites are very costly to maintain, and the Ministry must depend on public co-operation if this particular program is to be continued. It is no secret that the field offices of the Ministry are trying to do the best job possible within the limits of budget allocations. Theft could be the straw that breaks the camel's back.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS

Recently it has come to our attention that a number of subscribers are in arrears and have not renewed their subscriptions to date. Billing and renewal notices have in the past been sporadic due to the illness and unfortunate death of Mrs Feir and because of the recent change of ownership.

Subscribers who are in arrears will soon be notified and invoiced for the arrears on a monthly pro-rate basis in accordance with subscription rates in effect at that time and will also receive a renewal notice which should be returned along with the proper remittance to our office.

For our subscribers the following policy will be strictly adhered to.

Haliburton County Subscribers

- a) Subscribers whose subscription expired on or before Nov 30/73 will be billed at a rate of $3.00 per year or 25c per month for arrears up to that date. (Nov 30).

Thereafter until July 17/74 they will be billed at a rate of $4.50 per year or 38c per month for arrears.

Subscription renewals will become effective from Aug 1/74 and will be charged at a rate of $6.00 per year. The renewal charge is in addition to the arrears and subscribers who have not paid arrears and renewals by Aug 31 will be removed from the mailing list.

- b) Subscribers whose subscription expired on or after Dec 1/73 but before July 17/74 will not be billed for arrears and have until Aug 15/74 to renew their subscription at a rate of $4.50 per year. Renewals will be effective from the date of expiry. Subscribers renewing their subscription after Aug 15 will be charged for arrears at a rate of $4.50 per year and renewals will be charged at an annual rate of $6.00. Renewals effective as received.

- c) Subscribers whose subscription expires after July 17 will be charged for renewals at the new rate of $6.00 per year.

Non-County and Foreign Subscribers

Generally, the same policy for pro-rating arrears and time periods applies as above except that actual rates will differ as outlined previously.

Thank you for your continued co-operation.

News from Maple Lake

Sympathy from our community goes out to the families of the Simm's and Nunn's and the Noble Hagries in the loss of a Dear One.

Mrs Herman Mewema spent three weeks at Ottawa with parents and last week Mr and Mrs Miedema Sr of Holland visited with them.

Mr Whitney Barry is able to take the odd stroll to the corner of Airport Road.

Mr and Mrs Alvin Heayn and daughter also Mrs Cora Heayn called on several relatives over the weekend.

Mr Cec Hackett and a friend spent a few days with Ed Barry last week.

Mrs Margaret Cook looked after the Ball's while Mr and Mrs Earl Redner were away on a week's holiday.

Mr and Mrs Herbert Fountain are kept busy these days as old friends from near and far call to say Hello.

Mrs McKenzie (or Mrs Mark as we all knew her) spent a pleasant week with Annie and Herbie.

The rain is a very welcome item these last few days although on Saturday some damage was done due to winds and hail.

Jim and Joe Lee spent a few days with their "great" aunt Carrie Morrison last week.

Mrs Cecil Morrison and two boys are holidaying in Wales, a visit home for

The Summer people are enjoying the pleasant hot days and everywhere is crowded.

Fire coverage improved

BY CLAYTON ROGERS

As we are now past the half way mark in the year's operations of our governing bodies, a report of the most important matters which have come out of the proceedings.

First and foremost may I draw to your attention the matter of our fire protection. In my book the purchase of a fire engine is a step in the right direction.

May I point out to you the savings on fire coverage for all properties within a radius of four miles. One man with a high coverage reported to me he received a refund of approximately $100.00, now remember this will go on from year to year, very fine business.

Secondly, the fact that the Hawk Lake park area some 37 acres is now the property of Stanhope Municipality. For many years when I occupied the chair we endeavoured to secure this property, the best we could do was a yearly lease, with the promise it would never become private land.

Now as to our educational set up I am unhappy about it, and I think we have a right to express our views.

On our street here of only eight or nine ratepayers I would say our charges for education will run well over $2,000.00. From this area we send some four to six pupils to the public and high school in 1974, and our Township levy is $156,591. a population of some 7600-8000.

Please remember the township council have very little or no control in these matters.

Would it be feasible for us to apply for permission to establish a private school system in this township.

This is election year - Mr. Whitney one of our sitting members will not qualify, he has too many other interests, he has served us well for many years.

NEWBATT

Alfred Edward Newbatt passed away at the Meaford General Hospital on Wednesday July 17, 1974 in his 71st year.

Born in Wilberforce, Ontario he was the son of Edward and Isabelle Newbatt. Mr. Newbatt spent much of his life in the heating and plumbing business before retiring to Meaford in 1969. In 1933 he married Earla Gould.

Mr Newbatt is survived by his wife, son Keith of Yorkton, Saskatchewan, daughters Phyllis, Mrs Leigh Townsend of St. Hilaire, Quebec; Eunice, Mrs Robert Savoy of Tabusintae, New Brunswick and Betty presently at home; 12 grandchildren; four brothers, Lawrence, Elridge, Rufus and Clifton and sister Lyla, and Gladys (Mrs C. Watson).

Funeral services were held at the Ferguson Funeral Home on Saturday, July 20 at 2 pm officiated by Mr C. Cowan assisted by P. Zimmerman.

Pallbearers were Russell Risk, Cecil Risk, Hugh Hazelwood, Don Arnberg, Elwood Newbatt and Arthur Newbatt.

Interment was at Lakeview Cemetery, Meaford.

HAROLD UPTON

With great words of sorrow we write these words of a dear husband and father Harold Upton who passed away suddenly at his home on Wednesday July 10. He was in his 74th year. Born in Hall's Lake on May 30, 1901, he was the son of the late Mr and Mrs James Upton, (nee Annie Johnson)

On June 6, 1928 he married Laura Paull who was the daughter of the late Mr and Mrs William Paull (nee Lydia Barnum) of West Guilford.

They resided in this area until 1959. They then moved to Toronto where he was employed at the Toronto International Airport as a maintenance man. He retired from there in May of 1967 and returned back home to Eagle Lake where he lived until his death.

Left to mourn his loss are his loving wife, Laura, four sons Morgan and Murray of Toronto, Allan of Hall's Lake, and Karl of Maple Lake. Four daughters (Lois) Mrs. Junior Barry, (Marlin) Mrs Verne Gartshore, (Linda) Mrs James Hamilton all of Minden and (Bernice) Mrs Roger Cooper who was living with them at the time of his death. He also had one

THE BUCKHORN ROAD IS PAVED!

One of three flag girls, Wanda Nichols of Calabogie, Ont., slows traffic as it passes trucks waiting to unload their asphalt. "It's a rugged job" Wanda was told by her father, "but I really like the outdoor life and this Buckhorn Road job has been fun. Everyone has been real nice" Wanda says.

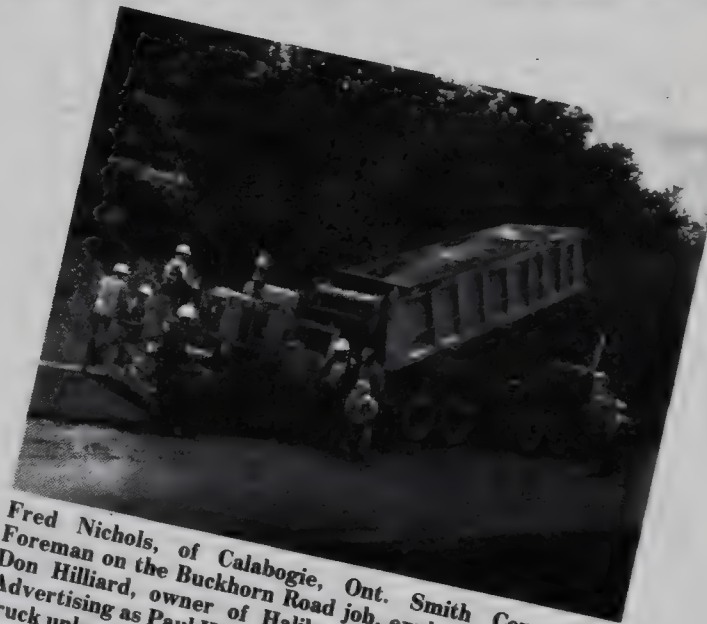

The next operation is rolling the asphalt from 4" to 1 1/2". Clayton Pitt of Calumet, Que., drives his 12 ton roller over freshly laid asphalt.

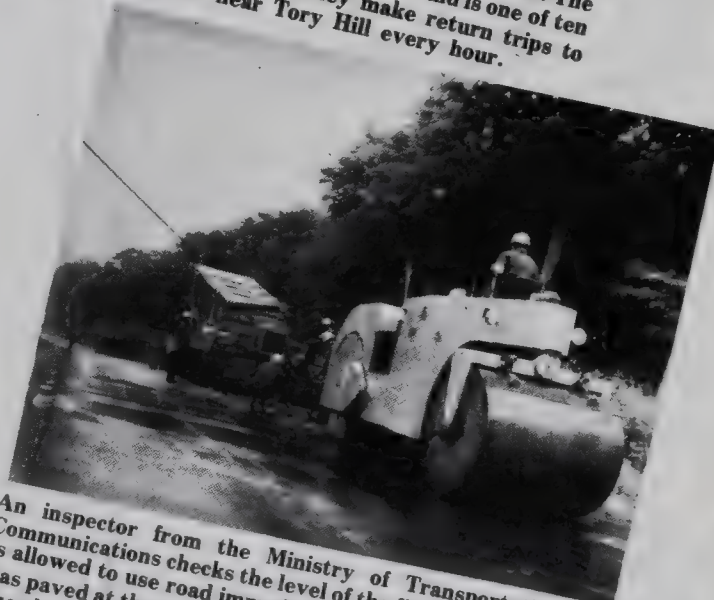

and Smith Construction of Arnprior, Ont. is pleased to have helped write the final chapter, on this historic road. Connecting Hwy 121, from east of Haliburton to Hwy 503 near Gooderham. It is the Northern link of the road that winds its way southerly to Peterborough.

Historically - In the year 1867 the Commissioner of Roads reports: - From Buckhorn Rapids or Hall's Mills in Harvey, the line is surveyed through to the south boundary of Dysart 34 miles. About 6 1/2 miles of this road are made at a cost of $1,000.00 per mile. We have spent on the above 6 1/2 miles $6,187.00 and the last mile is not yet finished. We are under promise to complete this road through Harvey, when the Town of Peterborough deposit $1,500.00 to our credit. Nearly 4 miles remain yet to make - generally rough country.

An inspector from the Ministry of Transportation and Communications checks the level of the finished road. Traffic is allowed to use road immediately. The Buckhorn Road job was paved at the rate of 2 miles a day and was completed on Tuesday.

Gems of Truth

WHAT'S YOUR SIZE

The measure of a man can be accurately determined by the things that anger him. When a person loses his temper and explodes over trivial matters he shows that he is a small man. But if he can smile in the midst of problems, he reveals himself to be a larger man in outlook and perspective. Such a one will undoubtedly have ability, stability and dependability.

The measure of a Christian can be similarly evaluated. If one must have his own way about every little matter and never willing to listen to others, he is small indeed. A Christian who will not work and participate in the program of his fellow Christians is very small. Such persons may have been a member of a congregation for a long time, but have not added one particle to its growth and service. In actuality such are only dead weight and a liability to the Church.

When one must always have their favourite preacher, favourite teacher, favourite seat, favourite song or favourite Bible verse it reveals that they are only a babe in Christ, regardless of age or length of time they have professed to be a Christian.

Until one can admit that others have rights and privileges, sound judgment, intelligence and ability he will remain a prejudiced person. He shows that he has not made the development in spirit and love that should be characteristic of a mature Christian. Christian growth develops the inner man which the Bible calls the soul. Soul prosperity

Ontario tourism

How Ontario plans to streamline its tourism development was outlined here recently at the first joint meeting of the province's 10 new travel associations and the Ministry of Industry and Tourism.

The first giant step was the re-organization of 39 former regional tourist councils into 12 vacation areas embracing the province's entire tourism plant. This was accomplished after months of consultations with ministry tourism division officials which set priorities for tourism development and promotion, and the role the tourist associations will play.

The ministry's funding structure provides an outright $30,000 administrative grant and a $45,000 cost-sharing grant to each travel association.

In Northern Ontario the ministry will absorb 90 percent of the latter amount for marketing, research and development projects. In Eastern and Central Ontario the ratio is 75 per cent and 50 per cent for the rest of the province.

In leading the discussions, Fred Boyer, executive director of the ministry's tourism division, said: "Ontario tourism is now a $2 billion-a-year business and if resources of people and dollars are made available to us, we foresee $3.1 billion by 1979".

Mr. Boyer added that $1.2 billion of the 1979 projection would be accounted for by U.S. and overseas visitors.

Armageddon

David Wilkerson Youth Crusades has just released a new film depicting the events foreshadowing the last world war at Armageddon. The 45 minute full color film features David Wilkerson, author of "The Cross and the Switchblade," narrating the dramatization of five calamities that are coming to the world.

The film is based upon insights into final events Wilkerson received from God this past April. "I saw coming to the United States and the world: A terrible recession; a major earthquake, and world-wide famine; a flood of filth on TV and on the newsstands; hatred against parents by teenagers; and a persecution madness directed against all Jesus people," said Wilkerson.

that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly". John 10:10.

Food for Thought: It is quality not quantity that counts for God.

Reverend David Wilkerson, executive producer, states ... "The purpose of this film is to awaken the young and old alike to the reality and nearness of the coming of Christ. This believable, low profile film has such an impact that every viewer will have to decide what he must do about Christ's imminent return."

"The Road to Armageddon" is now being premiered in churches throughout the United States and Canada and is soon to be released in Europe.

The public is cordially invited to this special presentation scheduled to begin at 7:00 p.m. in the Gooderham Pentecostal Church located at Gooderham, Ont.

Admission is free.

Sir Sandford

Ham radio station built by students

A ham radio station built by students at Sir Sandford Fleming College and appropriately licensed VE3-SSF has become an important teaching aid for electronics technician students there.

The station was assembled during an electronics project class this year, and will give future students the opportunity to apply communications systems theory by tuning the transmitter and becoming involved in operating, according to electronics instructor Rocklee Bogseth.

Mr. Bogseth said the students would be operating the station under the supervision of College technician William Ashby, who is a licensed ham.

This student-built ham radio station will become both a classroom aid for electronics students at Sir Sandford Fleming College and the nucleus for an amateur radio club of faculty and students there. Electronics instructor Rocklee Bogseth (left) is shown discussing the finished station with Frank English, of Peterborough, who was a major contributor to the assembly project prior to his graduation last month from the electronics technician program.

In addition to academic use, the station has prompted formation of a radio club at Sir Sandford, which is open to all faculty and students who wish to work toward a ham licence.

Mr. Bogseth said the College's new campus on Brealey Drive in Peterborough seems to be an ideal location for a station, because of its height and distance from major obstructions.

actions.

A novel technique has been employed in the antenna installation, which also seems to have improved the station's performance. Mr. Bogseth said the guy wires supporting the regular antenna have been constructed so they double as an antenna for lower frequencies.

The station is capable of producing 1,000 watts, and has a frequency range of 3.5 to 30 megahertz (million cycles per second), single side band.

Hydro resumes connections

The triplex shortage in Ontario Hydro's Georgian Bay Region has eased and installation of services to summer cottages has been resumed.

As a direct result of coverage given to the ban by the news media last week, hydro was able to purchase some 57,000 feet of triplex in small lots from suppliers and contractors throughout the Province. This is enough to install about 400 summer services.

Hydro management in the Georgian Bay Region now believes there is enough triplex available so that connection of summer residences can be resumed without jeopardizing its top priorities of maintenance of service to all existing customers and new connections to year-round homes and industry.

Managers of the 13 area offices throughout the 15,000 square miles region have been cautioned to make sure that sufficient triplex is kept on hand for emergencies and the connection of top priority customers for the next three weeks, which is a crucial period. It is expected that triplex from normal suppliers should begin to arrive by this time.

A WISE WORD TO PROPERTY OWNERS

Most property owners desiring to sell, believe by listing their property on M.L.S. through any real estate board that Realtors and salespersons throughout the land will receive a picture along with a copy of the listing and will be working to sell their property.

"WRONG".....

There are approximately 43 real estate boards in Ontario. Most Realtors and salespeople belong only to their own local board. Therefore, in most cases only receive the listings from this board.

To ensure that you receive proper servicing on the sale of your property in the Victoria-Haliburton area, be sure to list with a member Realtor, located in this area.

The LINDSAY-HALIBURTON REAL ESTATE BOARD consists of 229 members waiting to help sell your property for you.

Thank-You

The family of the late James Francis McMahon would like to express their sincere thanks and appreciation to their friends, relatives and neighbours for all acts of kindness and sympathy cards during their loss of a dear husband and father. A special thanks to Rev. Heather Hines, the U.C.W. of Tory Hill Church and John Welch & Son Funeral Home.

I've enjoyed steaks at Hy's and The Bayshore Inn (Vancouver), Hy's & Carmans (Toronto), Caesar Palace (Las Vegas), The Ranchman (Dallas), The Fontainebleau (Miami) and The Queen Elizabeth (Montreal), but none compared to your cuisine my family and I enjoyed last week on the occasion of my (?) birthday. The atmosphere was elegant but homey and casual, your waitress and service pleasant and excellent, and the unsolicited candle-topped birthday cake was the icing on the party! Thank you again, MR. FOGG'S. Don Hilliard, Stormy Lake and Scarborough, Ontario.

I wish to take this opportunity to thank friends, neighbours and especially the Wilberforce Volunteer Fire Department for their prompt action in our call for help at the recent fire at the Mumford Fish and Hunt Club. Mary and Ed Mumford

The family of the late Michelle Flores wish to express sincere appreciation to all those who were so kind to send sympathy cards and flowers during our recent bereavement. A special thanks to Browndale, and also to the ladies who sent in food. Tom Nunn and family, Helen, Robert and girls, Granparents, Aunts, Uncles, Cousins.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank Dr. Heyes, Dr. Good and staff of Haliburton Red Cross Hospital for their care during my recent illness. Cecil Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Henderson wish to thank all of you who sent cards, flowers, and many gifts and those who attended the anniversary supper served by the U.C.W. in United Church, Carnarvon. Mr. and Mrs. F. Henderson.

The family of the late Harold Upton wish to express their deepest appreciation to friends, neighbours and relatives for all the lovely floral tributes, donations, cards, visits, baking and many other acts of kindness shown to us during our recent bereavement of a dear husband, father and grandfather. Special thanks to Haliburton ambulance drivers, Dr. Good, Don McPhaden for his comforting words and the John Welch & Son Funeral Chapel Laura Upton and Family.

Hall's Lake News

Mr. and Mrs. Brendon Lee and boys and daughter of Peterborough are at their cottage on Peach Lake.

Mr and Mrs Ward and two daughters from Montreal are back for their holiday at Rawlins' "Alkamali" Resort.

Mr Brodie, Student Minister with Rev. Andrew Hutchison, preached a fine sermon at St. Stephen's Church Sunday afternoon. Mrs Finney of Maple Lake played the organ and there were several summer visitors in the congregation.

Mr and Mrs Willis Thompson and sons Glenn and Brian stayed a week at "Thistlebrae". They are from Burlington.

Mrs Elizabeth Wodzian-ska and daughter Miss Irena from Richmond Hill are in residence at their nice homey cottage here on the Lake.

The Misses Alberta, Pearl, Lillian and Olive Creasor from Hamilton, and Mrs. Bessie MacPherson and Mrs. Frances MacArthur of Glencoe are all at "Thistlebrae" for two weeks.

The ladies are busy getting ready for the annual Bazaar and Bake Sale this Wednesday at Club 35, for St. Stephen's Guild. We hope the weather will co-operate.

The euchre and bingo parties at Club 35 have been drawing many people on Monday and Wednesday evenings.

The water levels seem to be lowering lately and people are glad to have some sand beaches to enjoy a sunning.

Mr White from Lindsay reports that blueberries and raspberries should be in good supply shortly.

The Highway boys got around to cutting the long grass along the roadside just south of here and what a nice difference it makes! Thanks gentlemen very much!

Mr and Mrs Lloyd Thompson and Mr and Mrs Lloyd Allemang and son Mark of Ancaster are all staying at Cherokee Lodge as they have for many years.

Mr and Mrs James Carey are staying at their cottage on the Lake. Gwen is recuperating after surgery and says this Haliburton air is helping.
